

JLA minutes for April 9, 2022

Members: Ashley Countryman, Kori Wittinger, Sami Macon, Jack Pchelkin, Mike Pahl, Josh Pineschi, Mike Gruber, Alan Wittinger

Guests: Sonia Del Toro

Meeting called to order at 9:12 am by Ashley Countryman

The March minutes were reviewed and approved. Alan W. made a motion to approve, second by Jack Pchelkin.

Old Business

- Financial Update – deferred, Mike C. unable to attend
- Fair Processor's – they will be Country Butcher, Wagon Wheel, Roseville Meats, Tootles. JLA will pay for 4th fair processor for the goats.
- Livestock Barns – we are waiting for two more bids with the same measurements

New Business

- Photographer – Sonia D. said bids are open until May 1, 2022. B Ginn Photography is the only photographer that has submitted her bid thus far.
- JLA Meat Slicer – Ashley C. stated we need to purchase our own meat slicer for the breakfast and dinner. They have them at Bass Pro and other restaurant supply companies. Jack P. made a motion to buy a new meat slicer but not to exceed $500, Josh P. second the motion. Motion passed.
- Placer FFA BBQ use of JLA House – JLA has approved this request; Sonia D. will double check the legality according to GCF rules.

Projects for the year:

- JLA House – leakage, concrete repair –NCCT will take care of this.
- Refrigerator replacement – we continue to look
- Hog Highway – need to find a way to patch up and make useable for this year.
- JLA Overlook bid – waiting for bid to come in

Open Discussion

- Ashley C. mentioned we need a swing gate by the beef scale house. We can install it on the workday in late august. Ashley C. will look at pricing and preset it at the next meeting.
- Heidi H. stated she will help support the breakfast and give $1K.
- Livestock Awards- Sonia D. stated they have had increased pressure to give second place winners in 2021 buckles. After a long discussion it was decided by a motion by Heidi that the second-place winners receive buckles but that we don't go back in time. We begin with 2022. Motion second by Jack P. Motion passed. Sonia D. said we will need sponsors for the additional buckles and cost. Mike P. stated 5P Iron will support the buckles for beef or swine.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Alan W., second by Sami M. Meeting adjourned by Ashley Countryman at 9:50am.

Next Meeting May 9, 2022, @ 6pm, Gold Country Fairgrounds.